

About Niambi Jarvis, CEO/Founder Hiyaah Power Inc.

Hiyaah Power is the spirit child of Niambi “Bibi” Jarvis. Recognizing the importance of global citizenship and social entrepreneurship, Niambi created Hiyaah Power as a media outreach branch intent on empowering women worldwide. Focusing on revelation, resolution and restoration for the hurting masses, she embarked on manifesting her life's purpose.

Having lived and studied abroad, Niambi strives to empower women to realize their God-given potential. Hiyaah Power works with dynamic women's organizations worldwide to facilitate healing and restoration for women. Our vision is to create restorative conferences, workshops and seminars through state-of-the-art media channels. Hiyaah Power will leverage Niambi's executive level management experience in the information technology management industry. In her professional life, Niambi has managed and procured multi-million dollar government contracts for her clients.

Niambi attended Howard University for both Undergraduate and Law School. She has also studied at Universidad del Norte in Barranquilla, Colombia; in addition, she served as a Youth Ambassador to Israel in 1988. Niambi is currently pursuing her Doctor of Divinity Degree with Master's Graduate School of Divinity. Ms. Jarvis has appeared in print and on television including, Black Entertainment Television (BET), BET.com, Good Morning America, Essence Magazine and local radio nationwide.

Niambi has also sponsored various events and outlets developed to create restoration for women including, eSingleMoms.com, The Million Mom March, Healing the Brokenhearted Conference, Fashion Lives: HIV/AIDS Awareness Fundraiser, and Gospel Fest DC 2004. Hiyaah Power is a member of The National Council of Negro Women's Leadership Circle and an affiliate of the Network for Empowering Women. Moreover, Niambi is a member of The National Association of Female Executives, The Younger Women's Task Force: National Council of Women's Organizations, The Internet Society, DC Web Women, Phi Beta Kappa, and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Niambi is married to her wonderful husband, Gene McKnight and they have two brilliant and active sons. The Jarvis-McKnight family lives outside of Washington, DC. Niambi is the co-author of the soon-to-be-released 100 Words of Wisdom: A 31-Day Exercise in Empowerment, which focuses on self esteem, personal and professional development, self sufficiency and inner healing for women.
